VOLUME XI

OUR THEME:

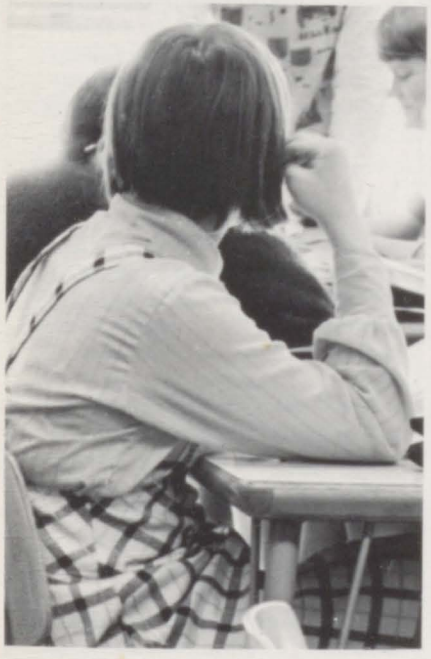

LET'S FACE IT . . .

This year was not one like so many others. The years of our lives, they say, are numbered. On that list, this will near the top, without doubt.

Time is of the essence it is said. This school year we faced many changes. We faced our nation choosing and reacting to a new president. We faced the newspaper every day with stories of war, violence and people surviving.

We realized it is time to look up, look behind, and most important, look forward. This is facing it. This is the reality of life—and the reality that we can do something about it.

Jules Verne dreamt of men reaching the moon. We are not dreaming it. We are facing it. We saw faces facing face to face with the face of the moon.

We are pleased to present the faces of North Scott High School. The world is envolvement and evolvement . . . let's, together, face it . . .

WE DEDICATE THIS . . .

SHIELD to Ed Knapper, Larry Gronewold, and Charles Morse, three heroic North Scott graduates who sacrificed their lives in Vietnam to keep us free.

The Vietnam war is one of the most controversial in the history of the United States. Perhaps that is because all issues are subject to more criticism today in this world of instant communication. Every aspect of the war is publicized, from the battlefield, to the conference room, to the peace talks. Students and dissidents find fault with the political moves of our leaders concerning this war and demand that something be done immediately. Some demand total war. Some demand isolation from the world's problems. Some demand peace.

Many of these demands are voiced at sit-ins, demonstrations, and protest marches. Possibly a few are voiced through the use of the ballot. These few are those who keep America strong. They have not forgotten the true cause for which our men fight: freedom.

A freedom from the oppression and tyranny that already rule too much of the world today. Our forefathers fought to obtain their freedom from Great Britain, and now it is up to us to face the responsibility of maintaining this freedom for ourselves and generations to come. But will this responsibility be accepted by youth? Millions of Americans hope, pray, and have faith that they will meet this challenge. The United States' fighting men throughout the world are proof that they will.

These men shall not have died in vain. If we stand united as a nation, believing in our ideals, their hopes and dreams shall be fulfilled, hopefully by ballots and words, rather than by guns and bullets.

TO EARTH

A young soldier lies on the ground
Yet he lies with a smile on his face.
It is of relief . . . for the war is over for him
And the earth has come back to him.

In olden days when they were young
They plowed the earth for life,
Now life is gone, the earth remains
Now the future yet to come.
The future when men will try again
To conquer it with guns.
Destroy the land, kill their fellow man
To satisfy their greed.

Now the young soldier lies
After a battle of lust
With his head buried deep in the earth's cool dust.
And now that he's dead, though he thought
they could win,
The earth has come back, back to him.

EDWARD KNAPPER CLASS OF 1967

Edward Knapper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Knapper, Eldridge, graduated with the North Scott Class of 1967.

Previous to his entrance at the high school, he had attended many of the one room schools then existing in the school district.

While at North Scott he participated in chorus, football, and baseball. During his senior year he was elected one of the top ten candidates for Bachelor Capture King. Farming was his main interest, however, and because of this he became an active member of both FFA and 4-H.

In November, 1967, Ed was inducted into the army and began his basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas. His advance combat training was received at Fort Polk, Louisiana.

In April, 1968, he was sent to Vietnam as a machine gunner and the team leader of a group of men. While a member of Company B1½, First Infantry Division in Vietnam, he was promoted to the rank of Specialist Four.

On September 9, 1968, Edward was killed in action. The Bronze Star, Purple Heart, and Army Commendation Medal were awarded to him posthumously.

LARRY GRONEWOLD CLASS OF 1963

Larry Gronewold, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gronewold, Donahue, was an active member of the North Scott class of 1963.

During high school he lettered in both football and baseball, and was a member of the Lettermen's Club. It was also his privilege to be chosen as one of the Bachelor Capture King candidates.

Through his affiliations with the FFA, he was awarded the Iowa Star Farmer degree, and later toured eight European countries on a People to People Good Will tour.

Larry began his basic training for the army at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, on July 10, 1967. Prior to his assignment in Vietnam, he received three weeks of training on a personnel carrier at Fort Knox, Kentucky. On January 8, 1968, he became a member of the 23rd Regiment, 25th Infantry Division in Vietnam.

Larry was killed in Vietnam on March 25, 1968, when he was hit by heavy enemy cross fire.

In July his parents received the Silver Star, Bronze Star, and Purple Heart, which had been awarded to him posthumously.

CHARLES MORSE CLASS OF 1965

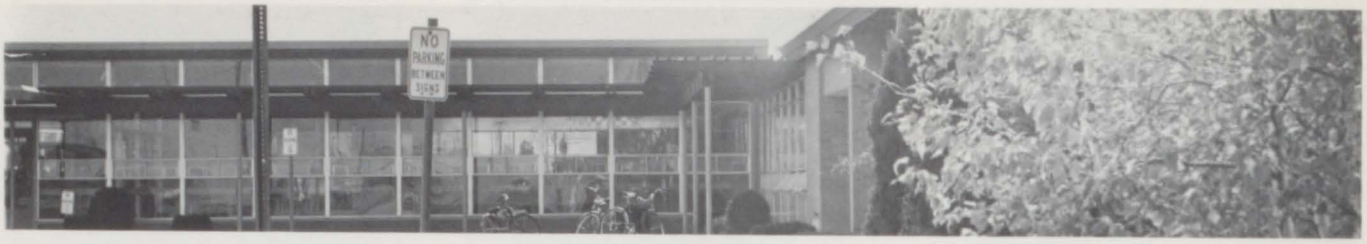

Charles Morse, who lived with his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. John Gall, Rural Route, Davenport, was a member of the 1965 North Scott graduating class.

While in high school he was active in such sports as football and wrestling. After graduation he became a mechanic in the tire center at Turnstyle.

In March, 1966, Charles decided to enlist with the Marines. He went to boot camp in San Diego, California. His basic training was taken at Camp Pendleton, California.

In October, 1966, he arrived in Vietnam, where he started his duties as a rifleman for the Golf Company, Second Battalion, First Marine Division. A month later he became a radio man for the same company.

Lance Corporal Morse was killed in action near Da Nang on March 27, 1967, when a force of about sixty five Viet Cong attacked his platoon.

THE FACES OF

During the 1968-69 school year, North Scott students saw the development and activation of a new innovation in student government.

A Student Forum, composed of fourteen students, two teachers and an administrator was initiated during the second semester.

The purpose of the forum was to discuss the problems that arise in the school.

Each quarter of the school year the class presidents and their selections of members from their respective classes attended three or more forums. The forums began at 8:30 a.m. and continued until the business was exhausted.

The moderator was the senior class president, who, with the other three class presidents, were permanent members of the forum.

The other members of the forum were selected by each class president, representing all factions, interests and abilities.

Committees were appointed to research certain problems and areas of concern to the forum and all the student body.

The idea of the forum is student involvement. It is not a body of students formed to make laws.

For the first year, the forum was deemed very successful. Anything of this nature takes a great deal of work and facing problems by those who are interested.

One of the major applications of the American way of life in the school systems of America can be seen in student government.

At North Scott High School the Student Council forms the major governing body. Its members' are elected in the spring of the previous year that they are to serve. Speeches and campaigns serve both to elect officers and to expose the students to political life.

The junior high school students run their own elections during the school year. They also conduct their own meetings.

One of the many projects of the Student Council this year was the Needy Family Drive at Christmastime. Many students became involved in this service project who otherwise might not have had the opportunity to help the needy.

Taking a needy family from the school district, the Council solicited funds and sponsored a trip from the North Pole by Santa Claus to ask for help. One well-remembered event was at a pep aud, where the members of each class carried an open blanket around the gymnasium into which their class members threw coins. The Freshman Class won, and the grand total was nearly $80.00.

When Christmas came, there were many happy students. But much more important, there was one happy family.

Before Christmas the Council conducted a most successful Homecoming. Button, buttons everywhere!

SPACE SENIORS LEARN FREEDOM

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL–Harold Paustian, Chairman; Brenda Cole, Sara Mohr, Julie Stoltenberg, Bob Wallace. SPACE is governed by an executive council of five seniors. These students deal with any complaints or discrepancies that might arise concerning SPACE members. Organized in 1967, SPACE has grown to include seniors, juniors, and sophomores. SENIOR SPACE MEMBERS–S. Lahl, B. Stamer, V. Shumaker, M. Robbins, K. Kroeger, C. Burch, M. Oetzmann, M. Noel, E. Portz, V. Young, L. Pewe, J. Kundle, K. Levien, M. Schafer, S. Keppy, L. Litscher, M. Elmegreen, S. Tulk, E. Noel, D. Hoos, C. Gibson, S. Billups, S. Frye, D. Doyle, D. Klever, B. Wulf, K. Fedderson, S. Flynn, B. Goetz, D. Smith, D. Stender, M. Meinert, D. Dahlin, R. Burmeister, D. Meyer, D. Gries, D. Patzer, J. Blanche, B. Oernam, J. Schneckloth, M. Keller, M. Schnoor, M. Kroeger, D. Dammann, M. DeSchepper, J. Hamann, J. Kuberski, S. Tuftee, M. Quinn, J. Murphy, M. Kay, W. Hamann, A. Goettsch, S. Becker, F. Lopshire, L. Beaston, K. Roukey, D. Klever, B. Lineberg, K. Mickelson, D. Tague, C. Stanlake, B. Grell, J. Schulz, C. Rock, K. Wiese, J. Freund, J. Hermann, L. Carter, P. Engel, G. Anderson, D. Arp, B. Looney, P. Youngers, D. Hanzen, P. Wilson, G. Taylor, Z. Grell, S. Kirby, M. Diercks, T. Carstens, S. Schaff.

Graduation, college, freedom from supervision confront the seniors. Under a rigid schedule they have progressed for twelve years. They have had little preparation for the responsibility they will have to accept after the diplomas are passed out. SPACE, the Student Program for Achievement in Citizenship and Education, has introduced a sense of responsibility to its members concerning their studies and their duty as members of the community. Responsibility to one's self prepares the college-bound student for the obstacles he will face in furthering his education; it presents the problems of everyday life to the student who will find himself involved in a working world. The unknown can be a frightening oblique. Through an unimposed scheduling, a student must learn to think to ascribe to a moving era of living. The SPACE program, expanded to include juniors and sophomores, will serve a double duty, coping sucessfully with limited space while establishing self-regulated study. North Sctot was the first school to adopt such a program in Iowa. SPACE will be expanded into a flexible modular scheduling when facilities permit. Run by the students, this program has proved successful only through the cooperation of students and faculty. SPACE–the organization for people ready to stand up to the responsibility of living, for the student willing to face it.

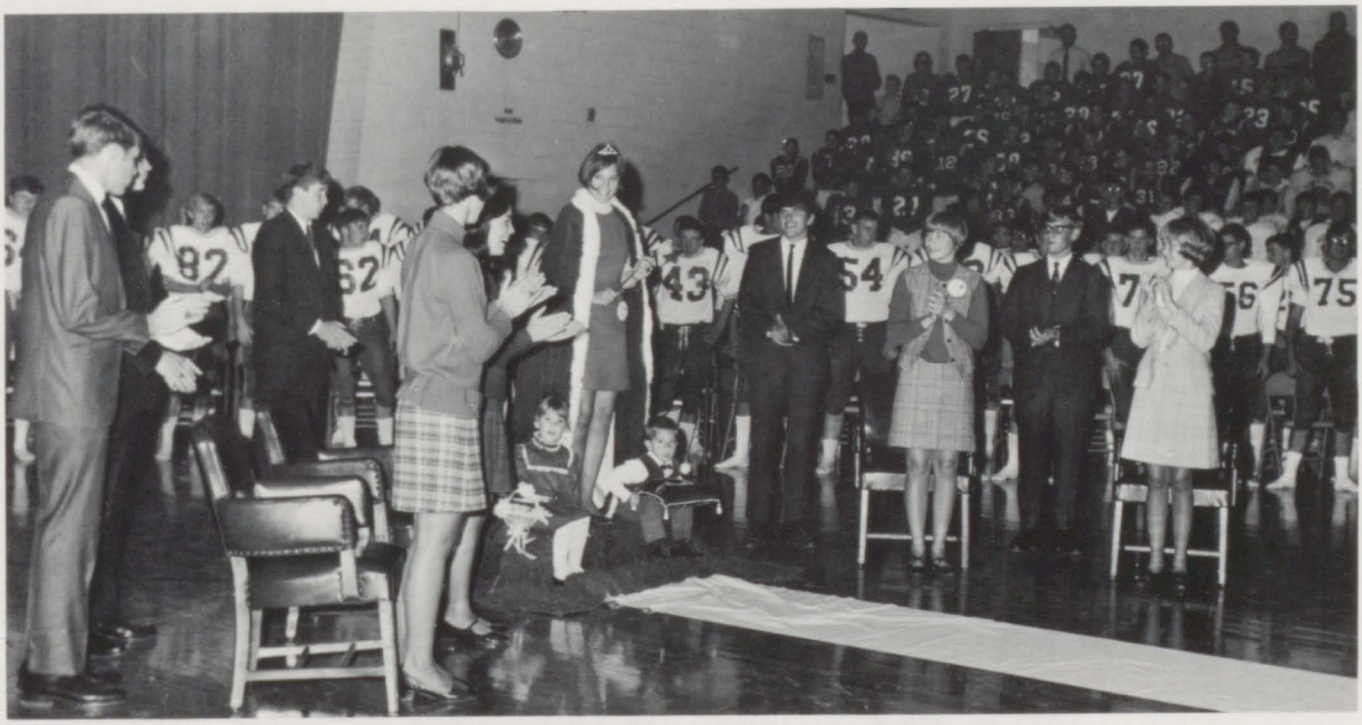

Enthusiasm at North Scott had never been as great. A winning team and growing spirit made Homecoming 1968 a highlight never before matched. Suspence started when the top ten senior girls were chosen. It mounted as the big game drew near and top five were announced.

The Student Council sponsored the window display competition, awarding first prize to the Art Club, exhibiting a life-size Lancer, and second place to Sadons. The school vibrated with an eager tenseness on October 11. Little schoolwork was finished as students and faculty alike anxiously awaited the battle against Newman's Comets. The spirit neared its climax when Bev Crane crowned 1968 Homecoming Queen, Pat Engel, and exploded when our Lancers came onto the field. Our team gave all, but Newman proved too valiant a fighter. Later, music by the 360° Triangle provided relazation after a tough game, and a festive mood prevailed at the Homecoming Dance. Despite our loss, pride and confidence in our Lancers remained. Defeat could not knock us down for "United We Stand."

Applauding the queen at the Homecoming Aud are her court and their escorts: Mike Meinert, Denny Arp, Brian Looney and Steve Keppy. Behind the queen and her court stand the 1968 Lancers whose attention shall soon move from the queen to the hopeful conquest over Newman at the football game.

Without Aunt Polly's knowledge, Tom, Huck and Joe eagerly discuss the advantages of removing warts with a dead cat. Supposedly works!!

THE ADVENTURES OF TOM SAWYER

Mrs. Harper, Aunt Polly and the Widow Douglas sadly review the events leading to Huck, Tom and Joe's tragic death on the river. Unknown to them, Tom eavesdrops on their entire conversation, and later reports it to his friends.

Mary, Susie, Sidney, the Sheriff and the narrator briefly review the play after their matinee performance for the elementary and junior high children. This audience proved to be highly attentive and thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon. This was a new experience for many.

One of the biggest problems is communicating with the people . . .

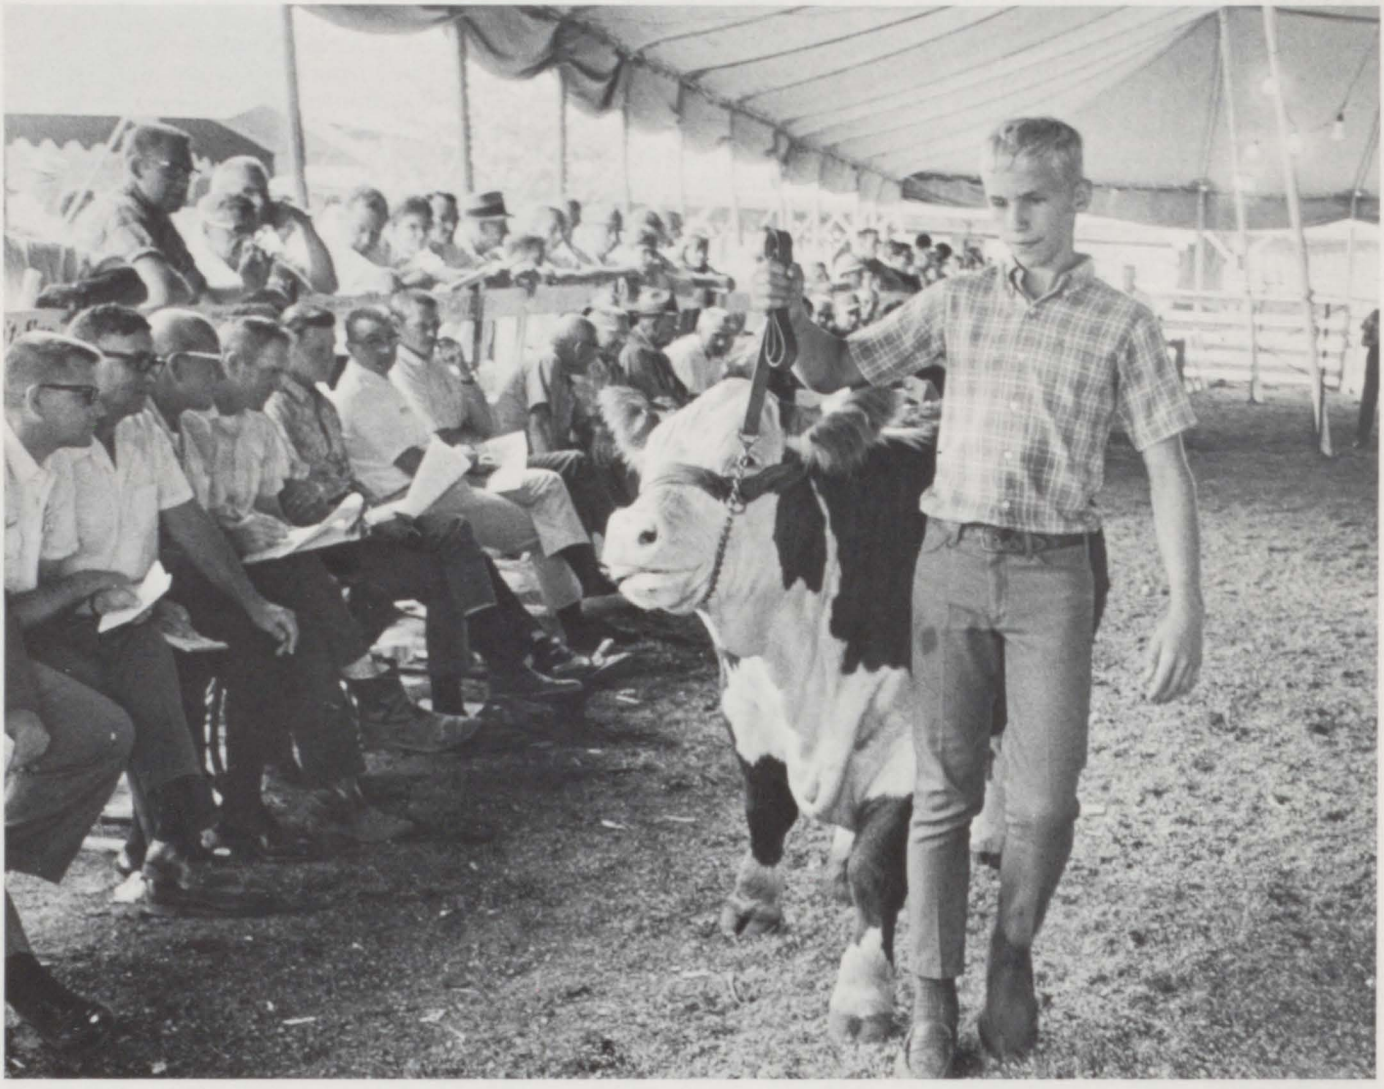

and today's world relies completely on communication. Thoughts and feelings can be expressed by a word or an action. The SADONS have made the art of communication one of quality. The members put to use the basics of organized speech and free, natural movement in "Tom Sawyer", the fall play. Make-up was barely washed off when preparations for the Annual Speech Invitational at North Scott were placed in motion. Bettendorf Speech Department received first place at the invitational and was awarded the traveling trophy. North Scott was well represented by its students, placing third with four 1 ratings in the final round. Instead of the usual Spring Play, three one-act plays, solely cast and directed by members, were given for the student body. The best two participated at the District Contest. From these activities, members of SADONS are learning to communicate.

HONORS AT FAIR FOR F.F.A.

The Great Mississippi Valley Fair is an opportunity for many students, as Paul Meyer above, to show off work and knowledge.

Agriculture has long been recognized as one of the basic vocations necessary for life. This production of food is a tremendous task. The North Scott Chapter of Future Farmers of America and other FFA clubs are facing a future of responsibility to feed the masses of the United States. Under the supervision of Mr. Marsh, these students are attempting to meet this challenge. Interested and concerned students were elected to decide the program and activities of the club to provide each member with the chance to understand agriculture and to gain knowledge about the career that they will need to know. To learn new techniques, senior delegates attend the National FFA Convention and American Royal in Kansas City. Juniors will represent the North Scott Chapter at the State FFA Convention in Cedar Rapids, and Sophomores will travel to the district FFA Convention in Salon. To show their knowledge, members enter FFA contests for speaking and enter the chapter's log book for judging. To encourage an increased crop the Future Farmers participate in corn and oats yield programs. Juniors gain experience by judging Dairy Cattle at the Cattle Congress in Waterloo. Responsibility for the "Kiddie Barn" at the Mississippi Valley Fair is handled by the Club. A final summer tour to Kent Research Farm completes the active year and leaves the member with a well-rounded basis on which to build. Farming is an important part of our country. An abundance of resources needed to produce food separates us from the nations less endowed and less prosperous.

THE FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA–Mr. William Marsh, advisor; Giles Looney, Reporter; Bill Kuhl, Vice-President; Harold Paustian, President; Ned Schroeder, Treasurer; Dan Gatton, Secretary; and Dennis Strobbe, Sentinal. These are the leaders of the FFA whose many tasks include showing the leadership qualities needed for the progress that is happening in the changing world of the American farmer.

NINTH GRADE WRESTLERS

JR.-SR. GIRLS CREATE

FANTASY IN FROST

1968 Homecoming Queen Pat Engel crowned Jerry Schulz the 1969 Bachelor Capture King. Other members of the court were: Jerry McLaughlin, Terry McLaughlin, Denny Strobbe, and Bob Wallace. This year's theme was "Fantasy in Frost" and the evening of February 22 saw the North Scott gymnasium transformed into a winter wonderland complete with evergreen trees and ice-skating pond.

It is a happy day when the Kirbys arrive at their married daughter Beulah's house in Camden. Thus their journey has a happy ending for all.

The chancellor learns from the king about his plans for his daughter's marriage.

Dulcibella tries to learn to impersonate the princess from the king.

The queen wonders and watches.

Love conquers all when the princess, impersonating Dulcibella, falls for the prince, impersonating Carlo.

LEADERS OF MUSIC

All State Choir delegates Adyce Marsh, Randy Stichter, and Edie Copley sang with 600 other Iowa students.

Through the ages, music has expressed the joy and sorrows, victories and disappointments of man. From the sonatas of the great composers to the rock beat of the jazz groups, music had touched an instinct, hidden but present in every person. Through each new phase, music has become highly specialized. North Scott prides itself in showing its students each phase and how one can become specialized, or skilled enough to play the phase well. The department meets specifications of talent, and has generated an interest in music to those who have not known it before. Participating in concerts, and the high point of the year, the Swingphonic Invention, the music department revolves in a frenzy of memorized words and notes. Rising competition makes each group one of select quality. Dedication to music, desire for self-expression, wanting to learn—these are the motives of both the faculty and students of North Scott. The learning of each song, note by note, conveys to the audience feeling and emotion; it is this feeling and emotion that say "Let's Face It" and help make this a better world. From every "fa" to every "do", from every cymbal to oboe we find a note of learning. Learning for today, learning for tomorrow.

Challenge is the inspiration of a life. Only when an objective is established can a goal be reached. And few careers reward more satisfactorily than teaching, helping others, expanding today, laying a foundation on which tomorrow will be built. The FTA believes in the importance of education, enough so to devote time and effort for this goal. The path leading toward this profession is already being explored. Cadet teaching furnishes understanding on how a lesson is prepared and presented, and experience in conducting an educational and interesting class under supervision.They learn education consists of more than just learning facts and figures. Only when concepts and ideas are transfered to the student is true education accomplished. The FTA is facing a goal. What can be more crucial than today's tomorrow?

Art has long been a basic form of self expression and symbolism. The Art Club has been developed to promote art in our daily lives and instigate a deeper understanding of ourselves, our community, and the world we must live in. Besides this overall concept, the North Scott Art Club has established several other goals leading to self-development and a closer relation to all people. Members open their homes and volunteer an afternoon to introduce a deprived child to a life enveloped in the calm serenity of nature, completely different from their own lives. To generate an appreciation of art in the community, a spring exhibit is sponsored to present and broaden art concepts. Through this combination of compassion for fellowmen, appreciation of nature, dedication to community and country, has developed a belief in ourselves. Love, art, nature can be pictured as one.

EL CLUB de ESPANOL

The daring of the toreador and the fascination of the bullfight have characterized Mexico on the minds of the American people. Having a foreign country on our Southern border has stimulated an interest in the Spanish culture and language. The purpose of the North Scott Spanish Club revolves around promoting the Spanish language and familiarizing others with the customs and literature of Spain and the Latin American countries. Students will find association with a foreign language useful in college. Since a language is a required course in most colleges, a background in Spanish will certainly be advantageous. Knowing the culture of the Mexican people will aid in understanding the lives of the Spanish people. To thoroughly study the Spanish culture, films are used to show the cities and activities of the Mexicans. The annual meeting of the Iowa Student Council of Spanish Clubs permits the North Scott members to discuss their knowledge and to develop new ideas on learning Spanish and increasing comprehension. Many facets of the Spanish customs have been adapted to our American way of life. Music and dance, literature, even parts of the language, have found their way into our lives. To see a few more of the many different faces of the world is a chance that should not be easily passed by, for with a better understanding of our neighboring country comes a deeper understanding of our own.

STANDING: Jackie Blanche, Connie Kohler, Deanna Stender, Debbie Smith, Sharon Anderson, Larry Litscher, Bev Grell, Diana Hansen, Steve Fish, Miss Marcella Healey, advisor. BOTTOM ROW: Tom Hunt, Chris Rock, Wynne Hammann, Tom Rathmann. This is the staff that puts together the bi-monthly student newspaper, The Lance. It is the first step in the world of journalism for many who see a great demand for the many areas of news coverage. NOT PICTURED: Bud Mickelson.

THE LANCE STAFF

The Shield and The Lance are communication here and for the future of North Scott. Whether the memories are of yesterday or years ago, each publication serves a definite purpose. The Shield, our yearbook, is the graphic and written expression of the entire year. The Lance, our newspaper, is published bi–monthly by the journalism class and represents the news media at North Scott. The work of these two groups varies greatly in purpose and method, but both show the world of North Scott as we face it, now.

STANDING: Gale Meyer, Lorrie Horstmann, Rita Flynn, Debbie Esbaum, Janet Downs, Kathy Schafer, Teresa Pewe, Marilyn DeSchepper, Susan Spies, Sindie Horstmann, Mrs. Carolyn Heddinger, Librarian. LIBRARY ASSISTANTS HELP SHELVE, MEND, BIND, FILE

The library, one of the most utilized rooms at North Scott, runs efficiently and quietly under the supervision of Mrs. Heddinger and the student librarians. The girls volunteer for this work, finding it enjoyable and educational. Helping others and learning the many facets of library science will always be helpful to these students, and gives the assistants experience in looking for reference materials in the future. The operation of our library will become increasingly important if North Scott adopts flexible modular scheduling. An expanded resource area must be conducive and adaptable to individual study. As more responsibility in education is placed upon the student, more material will be necessitated by an increased field of study. Teachers will expect class lectures to be supplemented by outside material, broadening the student's interests and understanding. Here is where the library will play an invaluable role. By being in contact with the library, student librarians will know what is available in a resource center and where the material is to be found.

IT'S SPRING

Sharon Anderson models her pink furry bathrobe tied with a scarlet ribbon.

Judy Claussen shows her brown and tan patterned coat with black accessories.

Sue Luett models her plaid brown and rust skirt and vest—perfect for school.

FHA SEWS AND SPONSORS

Judy Borchers plans an evening out in her blue velvet and lace cocktail dress.

Darlene Claussen in her metalic blue and aqua velveteen formal looks forward to BC.

Pat Wilson models her orange slack outfit which she decorated with braid trim.

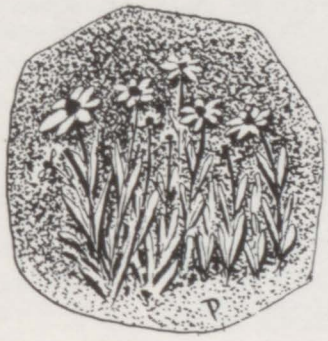

This bright pink, yellow, and white suit was made and modeled by Barb Oerman.

Pant suits were the new rage in 1968, and looked much like this one made by Nancy Simmons.

TO MAKE THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A HOUSE AND A HOME

The officers of FHA are Sindie Horstmann, Treasurer; Mary Lillis, President; Carol Stanlake, Karen Hermann, Julie Wiese, committee chairman; Cheryl Green, V.-President; Denise Jones, Secretary; Pam Jenkins, Historian; Janice Schneckloth, 1968 District officer; Vicky Price; Doris Rock, District Officer.

The national organization of Future Homemakers of America is striving toward the goal of building a firmer foundation for our country to stand on. The North Scott Chapter of the F.H.A. brings this responsibility to the local level. They know the necessities of making a home comfortable. The secrets of transforming a building into a place of happiness come only with time, but with a solid and complete knowledge of the other intricacies of running a home, these girls will gain experience coping with the problems that inevitably appear.

The North Scott F.H.A. has aided the Annie Whittenmeyer Home this year. At Thanksgiving they gave each child a "Turkey Note", a basket of candy. Christmas saw a tree placed in the Home Economics window with the invitation for all students to contribute mittens and gloves to take to the children, a wholely worthwhile and satisfying donation.

Also sponsored by the F.H.A. was the annual slumber party. After a basketball game, the gym was turned into a playhouse for the F.H.A. members and their guests. Wild pandemonium reigns until the next morning when, carrying blankets and pillows, they depart for home and bed.

The girls give the janitors a helping hand during F.H.A. week. Cleaning the trophy case is only one of the traditional duties taken over to help the custodians. Roses to each of the teachers show thoughtfulness and consideration for the work contributed by each instructor.

'Looking toward new horizons', the Future Homemakers of America are trying to reach the goal so important to our nation. Philosopher Kahlil Gibran summerized the real difference between a house and a home in THE PROPHET when he asked, "What are in these houses? Have you peace, the quiet urge that reveals your power? Have you remembrances, the glimmering arches that span the summits of the mind? Have you beauty, that leads the heart from things fashioned of wood and stone to the holy mountain?

Tell me, Have you these in your house?

Or have you only comfort . . . ?"

SWINGPHONIC INVENTION II

The second annual Swingphonic Invention was held at North Scott on March 28th and 29th. This year's program began with the combined production of "Everything's Coming Up Roses", by the swing band and chorus. The Master of Ceremonies for the evening was Pat Fulton (at Right). Above, Deena Carter, Sue Frye, and Jan Hermann perform their jazz dance of "Pink Panther" to the "dobey-do's" of the core group and the accompaniment of the stage band. This year the audience was also entertained by the antics of several escapees from "Laugh-In", such as the old man and old woman on the park bench, and the tricyclist in the yellow raincoat.

A special highlight of the evening was a solo done by Gail Anderson: "The Look of Love", accompanied by the band.

The swing band, or stage band as it is sometimes called, was very active during the year preparing and practicing for various contests and events throughout the area. One major activity of their's this year was a stage band contest at Iowa City. The group was judged along with several other bands in the area, and received second place. For swing show the band accompanied the chorus on several numbers besides playing arrangements of their own. One piece, "You Keep Me Hanging On", was arranged by a member of the group, Eric Pierson, and featured a drum solo by Rudy Braun.

A RECORD SEASON

North Scott's 1969 track team faced it very well this year. They initiated a new track coach as well as a new track during this season. Mr. Donald Schmeltzer, new track coach, had a year to be proud of.

The NS track team began its 1969 season with the State Indoor at Iowa City. This is a difficult meet to prepare for because it is held so early in the season. Outdoor practice is seldom possible this early because of bad weather. Despite this handicap, however, the Lancers did well and brought home fourth place.

The next meet was the Tipton Tiger Relays. We narrowly missed taking the Class A trophy as we were edged out by Anamosa. The season continued as the thinclads journeyed to two smaller meets—the triangular at Morrison and a dual at Muscatine.

On April 19 the Davenport Relays were held. This is a different type of meet as all the events are relays with no individual running events occurring. NS took third at this meet, after coming through some very stiff competition.

The Lancers won an easy victory when they went to run against Fulton on the Fulton track. The tracksters won all the running events and all but three of the field events.

The 60th annual Drake Relays were held on April 25 and 26. North Scott was entered in two events. Butch Roller ran the mile in a time of 4:29.7 and placed fifth. The North Scott mile medley relay team was also entered. It was made up of Jim Bailey, Dick Pischke, Denny Moore and Butch Roller. They ran in a time of 3:38 and also placed fifth.

The Durant Wildcat relays were held April 29 with the Gateway Classics being held the following Saturday, May 3. The Lancers were victorious at both. At Durant, NS beat second place Tipton by an easy 20 points. Gateway was not such an easy victory to take, however, and was not won until the final event was run.

North Scott went to the 23rd annual Fulton Relays to defend its championship, but were not strong enough to fight off Mount Morrison High School who won by five points. NS did set two new meet records, however. They were the mile medley, run in 3:40. 7 (old record 3:42.7) and the mile relay, run in 3:33.2 (old record 3:35.0). These teams were both made up of Jim Bailey, Denny Moore, Dick Pischke, and Butch Roller.

TRACKSTARS MAKE NEWS

The District Meet was held May 9 at Tipton to qualify those going to State later in the month. NS won the meet and, in doing so, qualified two relay teams and entrants in four other events for state competition. All those qualifiers were either first or second place finishers or placed better than a mark already established for that event. Those Lancers doing well enough to go to the state meet at Jefferson were; Butch Roller (880 in 2:00.3 and the mile in 4:39.2), Jim Bailey (440 in 52.5 and second in the 100 yd. dash), Terry McLaughlin (180 low hurdles in 20.7), Dick Pischke (second in the 220), and Mike Mohr (second in the 120 high hurdles). The mile relay team of Bob Peterson, Denny Moore, Dick Pischke, and Jim Bailey won in a time of 3:33.8 and along with the two mile relay team of Jerry Schulz, Denny Dammann, Ron Mahmens, and Mike Meinert, who won in a time of 8:35.4, also went to Jefferson on May 24.

The 1969 Illowa Conference Meet initiated our new NS track. The Lancers were victorious in retaining the Illowa crown as they easily outdistanced the other schools. Butch Roller set a new meet record in the mile as he ran it in his best time of the year, 4:23.4. The old record had been 4:33.6 and was set by DeWitt in 1965.

NS took second place at its next meet, the Prairie Relays in Cedar Rapids. The Lancer mile and two mile relay teams were victorious in times of 3:31.7 and 8:22.3 respectively.

The '69 track season closed for the Lancers with the State Outdoor at Jefferson, Iowa on May 24. North Scott finished with six points all won by junior track member Butch Roller. He took second in the mile and fourth in the 880.

The NS track squad faced some tough competition this year, and they faced it well. They faced a new track and a new coach with apprehension and enthusiasm, and won.

Harold Paustian received the Bausch and Lomb Science Award.

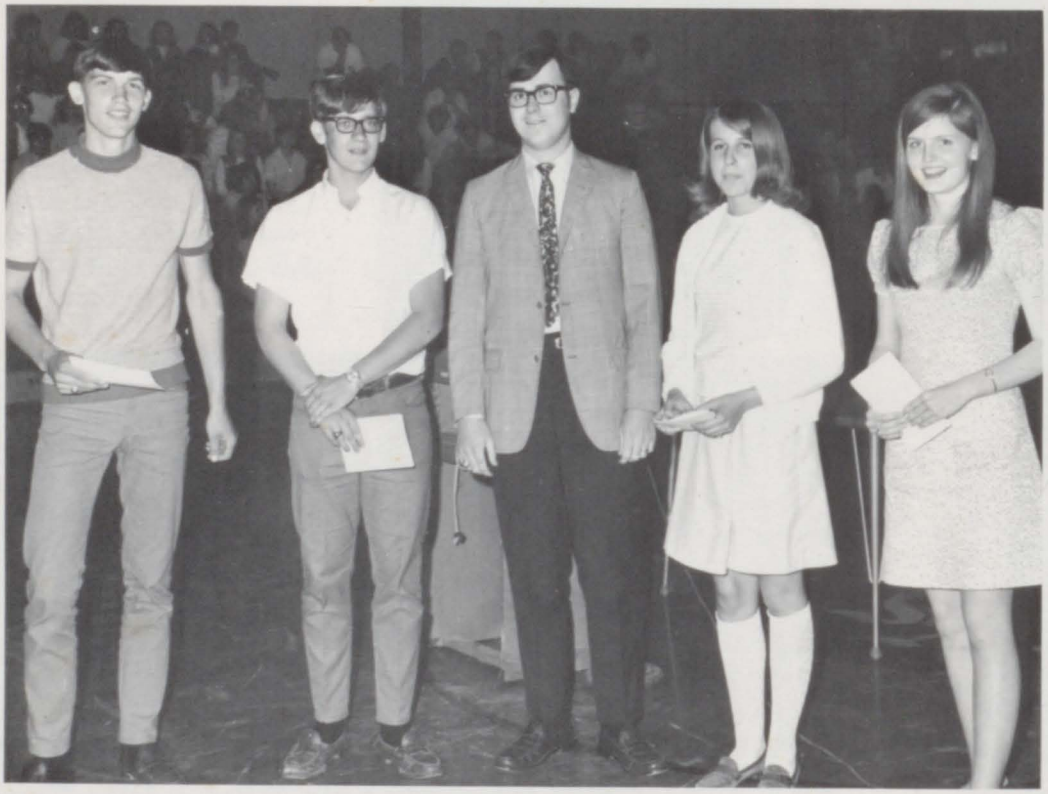

Mrs. Heiman presented Marney Keller with the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award given by General Foods.

Julie Stoltenberg and Harold Paustian were awarded the Iowa State Bar Association Citizenship Award by W. W. Brubaker, a member of the association.

AWARDS ASSEMBLY HONORS

Among many other awards given at the assembly on May 8, 1969, were these certificates and charms presented by Mr. Cockman, SHIELD advisor, to Kent Kroeger and Steve Keppy, advertising managers, and Jennifer Rock and Julie Stoltenberg, editors.

Barb Oermann, a senior, was presented the Crisco Award. This presentation is given to the one girl the Home Economics teachers consider having done outstanding work in the area of Home Economics during high school.

Dennis Strobbe, along with Alvin Stender who is not pictured, were named the Most Valuable Wrestlers by their teammates.

Miss Rechemmer presented Pat Engel with the Most Valuable Vocal Musician award.

Mr. Snyders announced that Jerry Schulz had been chosen as the Most Valuable Football Player for the 1968 season.

THOSE WHO FACED IT WELL

The Most Valuable Dramatist award was presented to Julie Stoltenberg by drama director Mrs. Betty Levsen.

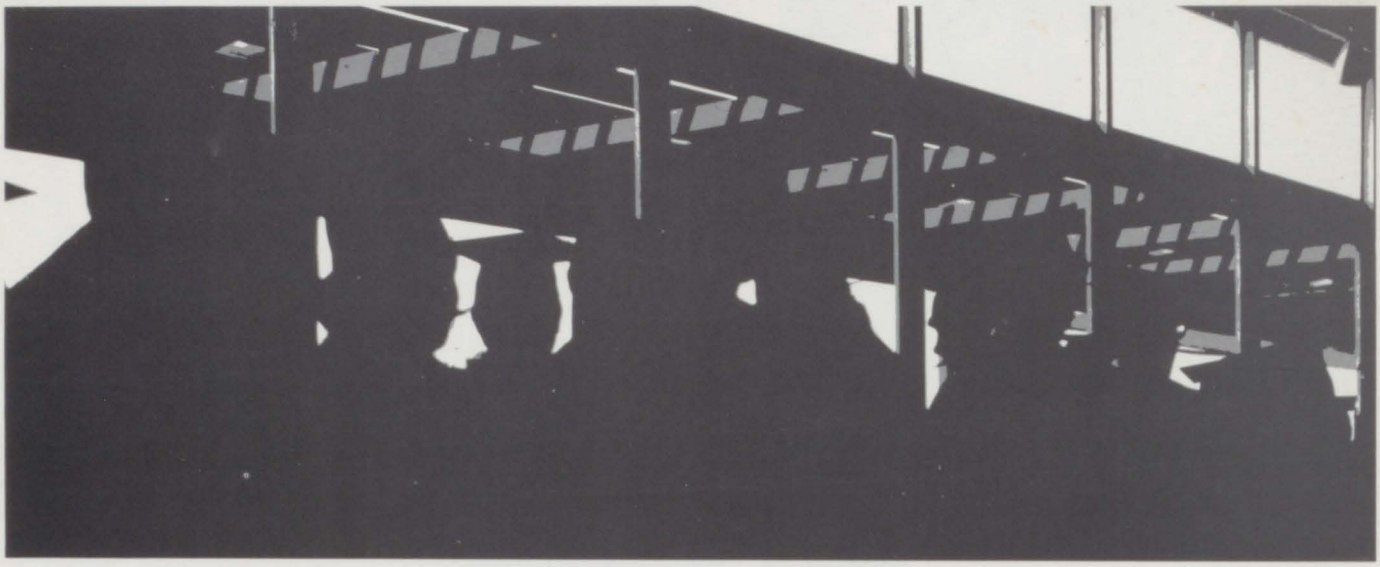

Craig Gibson, first chair trumpet player for the band, was chosen as the Most Valuable Instrumental Musician. Mr. McIntosh presented the award.

The Most Valuable Speaker for the 1969 school year was Connie Kohler, shown here with Mrs. Levsen.

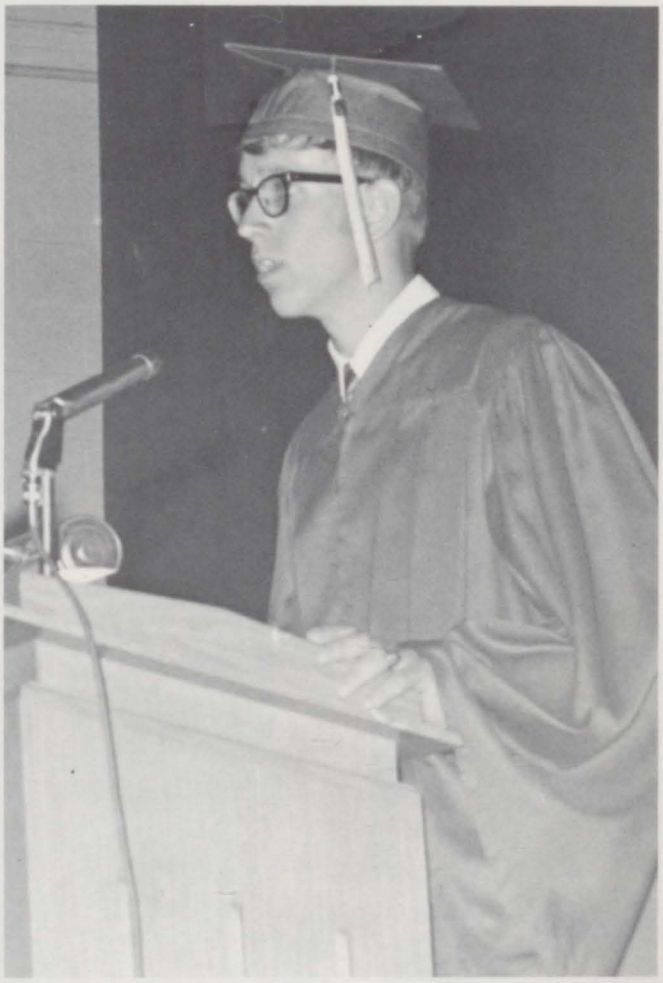

FACES OF GRADUATION

These are the faces of the 1969 Graduating Class at North Scott. Above, speaking for the class, is Harold Paustian. Julie Stoltenberg also spoke for the class and reminded all those present of the wonderous worlds behind and beyond this day.

OUR 23rd PSALM REVISITED

The prof is my quizmaster,
I shall not flunk
He maketh me to enter the examination,
He leadeth me to an alternate seat.
He restoreth my fears.
Yea, though I know not the answers to the questions,
I will not fear failure, for others are with me.
Class average comforteth me.
I prepare my answers before the presence of my classmates.
I anoint my testpaper with answers.
My time runneth out.
Surely grades will follow me all the days of my life,
And I will dwell in this class, FOREVER.

MUCH TO WATCH, LOOK, LISTEN

For the first time at North Scott, the yearbook staff presented this exhibit of the 1968 Kodak Scholastic Photo Awards from the Kodak Company and Scholastic Magazines, Inc. This exhibit contained an impressive and colorful selection of forty-three of the top winning photographs taken by U.S. teenage students and entered in the 1968 Scholastic Photography Awards. The exhibit was presented in an imaginative manner in the display cases of the library and home economics rooms in B hall during the first two weeks of January. Many students were being introduced to the world of photography for the first time. Everyone was amazed at the beautiful and inspiring end results of many students from throughout the country.

SWORD BRINGS NEWS

THE SWORD

Volume 1 Edition 1 October, 1968

INTRODUCING THE SWORD

"So," your best friend remarks, "this is the first edition of our newspaper. I'll bet it's just like the Lance."

Now is the time to quietly tell him that is exactly what this paper is not The purpose of the is to be a paper for and about the junior high only.

There was so much interest in having a newspaper that when Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Masterson, the advisors, asked for volunteers, they had more than were needed. After one meeting three seventh graders and three eighth graders were chosen to choose the best ten suggestions from the Name the Newspaper contest. These students are: Pam Geary, Julie Keding, Tony Edwards, Debbie McLaughlin, Bridget Bailey, and Debbie Wilford. The name was then chosen by a vote of the Junior High student body. It was also decided that the paper should come out monthly, usually before holidays.

Debbie Wilford was named editor and Rose Carstensen as assistant. Bob Loussaert is the sports editor. There is also a panel of editors which is responsible for classroom news, social news, etc.

AN AFTERWORD

we tried. This is a yearbook unlike any other, we are sure. In looking for the correct picture for the correct spot, we have faced the many, many faces of North Scott High School. We hope it turned out the way we planned.

We looked at faces from football games, clubs, and classes until we were sure the faces no longer matches the names. We observed many things of which we would like to make comment.

Our theme states how we see today's student. The two pictures on this page illustrate "facing it" intwo of the many ways available to all students. While some students see a need for change in one light, others see it in an entirely different context.

Our Editor, Julie Stoltenberg, in the picture above, shows change and advancement, literally, through books. Does change begin in oneself?

The student protesters in the other picture illustrate change by forcing others to see the need for change. Does change begin in others?

We have seen changes illustrated throughout this yearbook, or so was our aim. One could hardly face anything during the 1968-69 school year without seeing change. If only to change or be changed slightly through "facing it" we have achieved our goal. This to us is life.

Pictures of people, pictures of places, pictures of faces–this is North Scott. Today's goals, unlike those of other times and other people, aim at fullfilling dreams. Bobby Kennedy's dreams. Channing Phillip's dreams. Martin Luther King's dreams. My dreams. Your dreams.

And how do dreams become fulfilled? Facing. Facing people. Facing Life. Facing God. Facing oneself.

We hope your memories, here captured, forever, will show an effort, a change, a facing.
